We will sail and plan to arrive in the afternoon in Rotterdam (Jeanne's home town) , where we will visit Museum Boymans van Beuningen, which offers a rich overview of centuries of Dutch art.

Dinner in Rotterdam

Day 8 - Rotterdam

We will spend the day (on bike or by foot) in Rotterdam, looking at an exciting variety of architecture and art around the city.

Dinner on board JOSEFIEN

Day 9 – Schoonhoven

We will sail through the 'Green Heart of Holland' with Schoonhoven as our destination, but first we'll make a stop to get our 'windmill fix' .

-At the World Heritage Site Kinderdijk we will visit windmills, take photos, get a feel of times past.

Later we will arrive at Schoonhoven, where we can enjoy the small old town, wander through the little streets, shop, visit the silver museum, or simply rest.

Day 10 - National Park De Hoge Veluwe

Today we will go by bus for a tour to Dutch National Park, "The Hoge Veluwe".

-We will see the grounds by bike (optional) and have a tour through world renowned Kröller Müller museum with its amazing collection of turn-of-the century art and beautiful sculpture garden.

-We will return to our ship in time for dinner in the town of Weesp.

Day 11 - Weesp

Weesp is a sweet, small, old town in the green heart of Holland. With its waterways, small bridges and windmill, a wonderful resting spot. Choose today for picture taking, plein-air painting, visit the old castle 'Muiderslot' or go for a bike ride along river 'Vecht'.

Day 12 - Amsterdam

Today Amsterdam's Stedelijk Museum of Modern Art is on our agenda. This brand new museum offers exhibitions to contemplate on contemporary art. But for those of us who prefer that, there will be also time to wander through Amsterdam and stroll the famous little streets with their small boutiques and brown cafes.
-This evening, we will celebrate our fare-well dinner on board of our ship JOSEFIEN

Day 13 - Amsterdam

After breakfast we will check out and leave our ship JOSEFIEN to return to Amsterdam's Central Railway station. From here you can catch the train to Schiphol Airport, or continue to visit The Netherlands.
