Off the Wall!

A 3-day mixed media painting workshop in Tofino with artist Jeanne Krabbendam

In three days you will learn the wide range of mixed media techniques and applications that are taught during Jeanne's semester long courses at Emily Carr. Jeanne will lead participants through a range of instructions, providing techniques and tips and offering insights into the art of collage and mixed media. You will work with unusual and less traditional tools and materials to build exciting layers through a variety of textural and surface variations. Not only will you have a fun and creative time, you will leave the workshop with 2 or more inspired pieces of artwork to embellish your home or give away as gifts!
